My dear Masterman,

Please see your D.O.No.7226 B/37-3 dated the 7th of April regarding the contribution of the Maharaja of Jeypore for Hindustani teaching. You may remember that after a personal discussion with you it was decided to let the matter lie over until I had further instructions. I should now be glad if you will kindly let me know whether the Maharaja's contribution of Rs.5000/- a year for the next five years is to be regarded as capital to be invested and only the interest used or whether it is to be regarded as recurring expenditure.

Yours sincerely,

The amount is not to be an endowment. We are free to use it up. I would like it to be used in the best way possible for enabling us to get on with the Hindustani programme including grants to outside bodies that help us to get trained teachers. The getting of suitable trained teachers & getting books prepared will be our chief difficulty during the first few years.

My dear Statham,

Your D.O. of the 22nd April - Contributions of the Maharaja of Jeypore for Hindustani teaching.

I am to say that the amount is not to form an endowment but is to be spent in the best way possible in furtherance of the programme of introducing the study of Hindustani in schools: grants to associations or bodies that train Hindustani teachers, expenditure on the preparation of suitable text books, &c. may be debited to the amount.

Yours sincerely,

This cheque is the first year's contribution out of the five years grant promised by the Maharajah of Jeypore for Hindustani work. This may be duly credited and spent according to the donor's intention.

I think I have sent in a paper about it before. Any special expenditure involved in making grants for the training of teachers and appointing special officers for inspection etc. may be met out of this amount preferably, and if any amount is left over after meeting such special expenditure, it may go in part to cover the teachers' salaries or grants therefor.

An official acknowledgment may be sent to the donor.

Please see H. P. M's last note on the utilisation of the donation of the Maharaja of Jeypore. The D. P. I. has not addressed any communication to Govt. as to the best manner of using it. So far, the grant of Rs 175 a month to the Dakshina Bharat Hindi Prachar Sabha has been assumed to come out of this donation. The case of any further cognate expr may be considered as it arises. It is perhaps unnecessary to keep this file open. May be recorded.

I think we should know how the balance of the donation is being utilised, or is proposed to be utilised: ask the DPI

[illegible] 13.4.39

On further consideration it seems that there is no point in addressing the D. P. I. at present. The donation is credited to the general revenues and H. P. M's last note at p. 7 ante makes it fairly clear that any balance of

In these circs: it seems sufficient to record the pp for the moment.

The Govt. have spent more than Rs 5,000 on grants towards the salaries of Hindustani teachers last year. ~~It~~ A reference to the D.P.I does not seem necessary.
